

Speak Up Storytelling Workshop

Growing up in the 1970s & 1980s

Sunday, March 4, 2018, 9:00 AM - 4:00 PM

Sponsored by and held at the Jewish Historical Society, 333 Bloomfield Avenue, West Hartford

Included in this workshop:

- Methods for generating ideas for stories
- Developing the ability to speak extemporaneously, and apply the skills taught in the class
- Structuring an effective story
- Stakes and lies in storytelling
- Development of humor
- Performance techniques
- The 16 Most Important Rules of Storytelling

Speak Up co-founder and four time GrandSLAM champion Matthew Dicks will teach a day-long workshop on the art of storytelling. This workshop is designed for people with little or no previous storytelling experience. Improve communication skills, meet new people, and try something new!

Interested workshop participants can share their stories at our public Storytelling Showcase on April 26, 2018.

Please fill out and return this portion with your check made out to JHSGH, 333 Bloomfield Ave., West Hartford, CT 06117. You may also register online at: www.jhsg.org. Please respond by Monday, February 26, 2018.
